Medical Command and Control

CAPT Bruce R. Boynton

Director, Readiness/Expeditionary Med

Bureau of Medicine and Surgery

Where are Navy's Medical Assets?

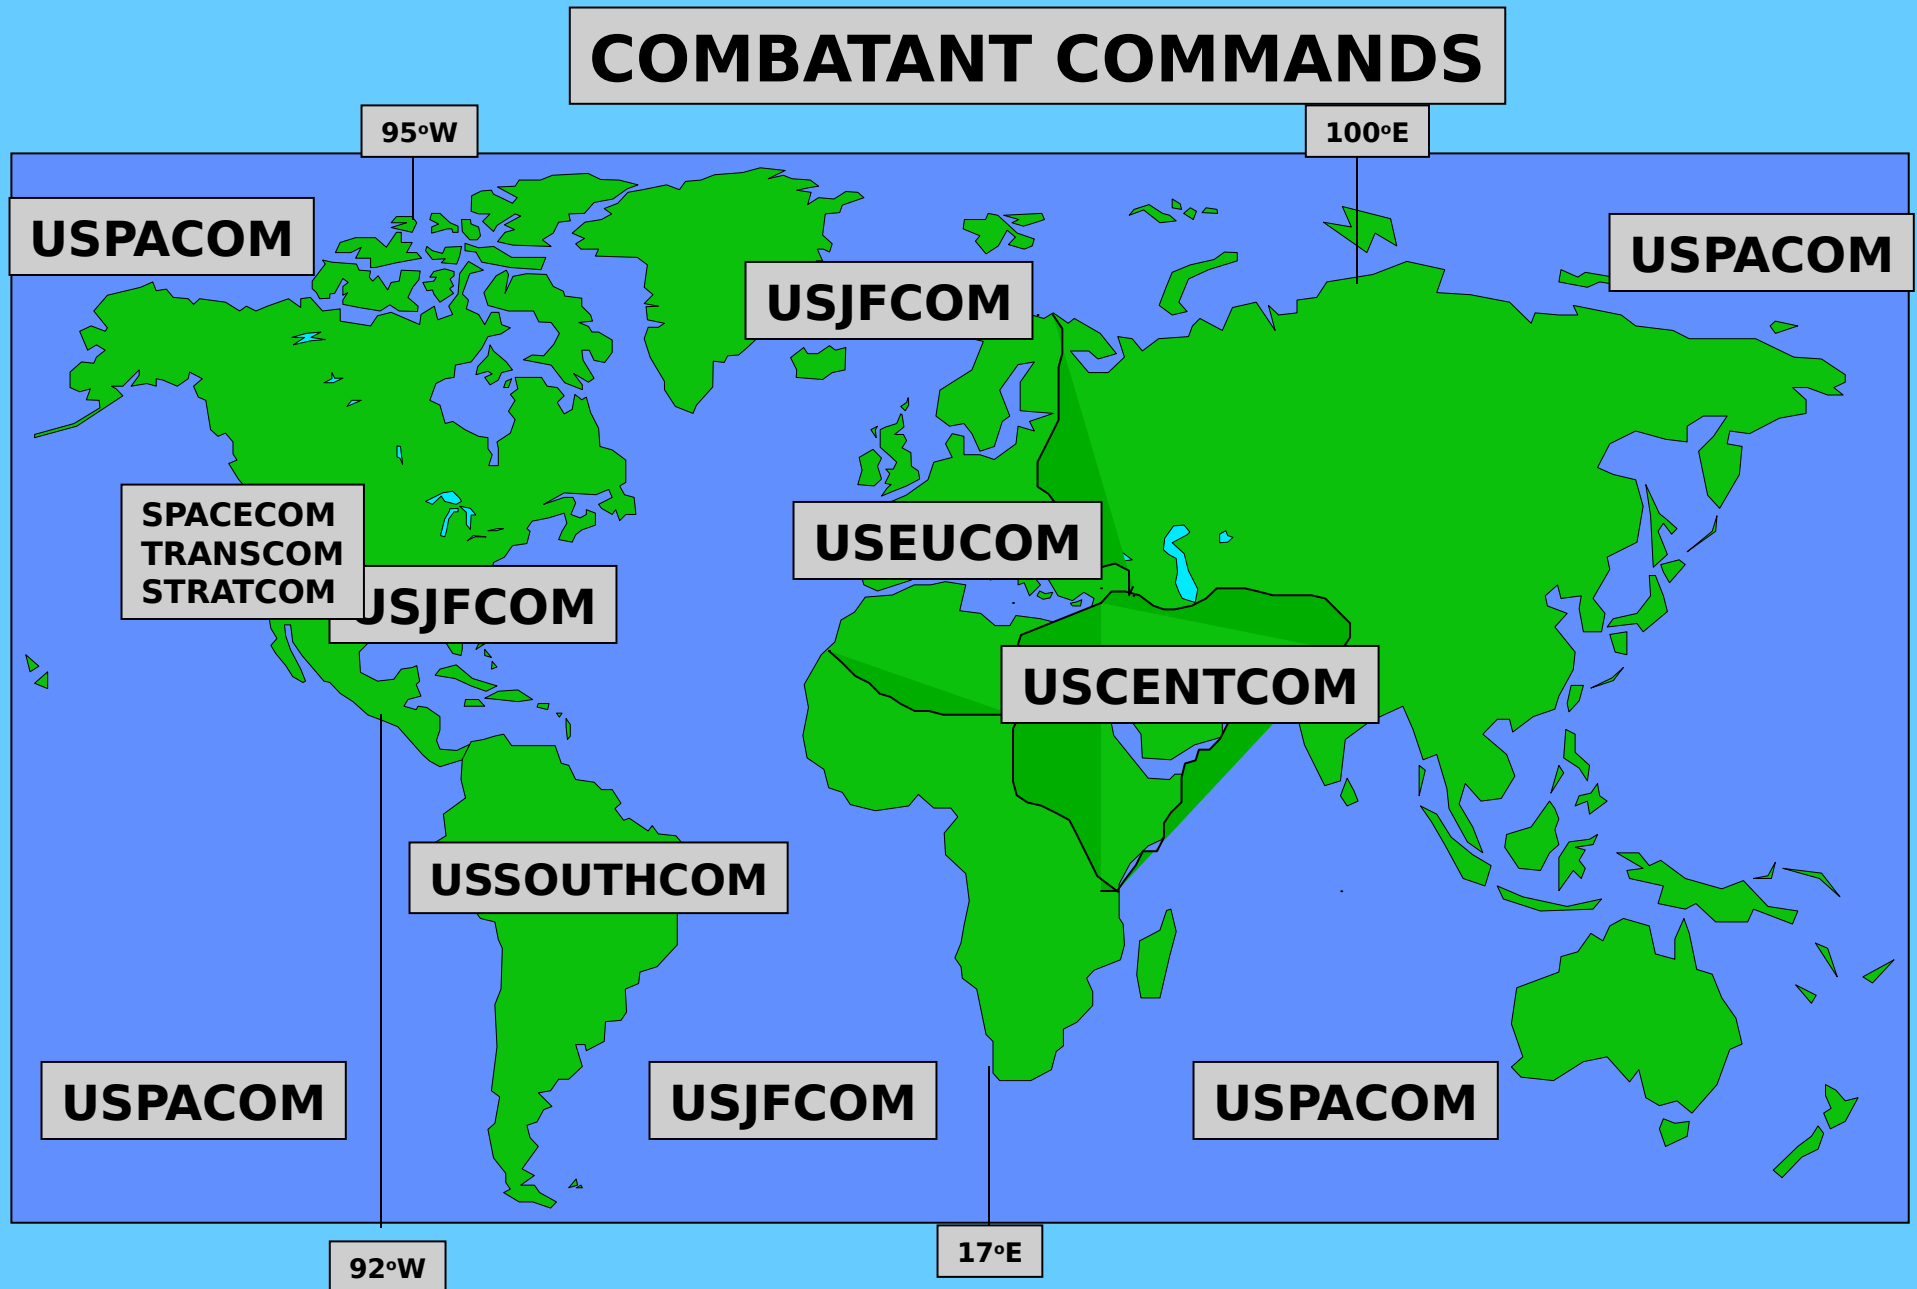
- Cl 18 - MTF, BMC, EPMU
- Cl 27 - USMC
- Cl 60 - Atlantic Fleet
- Cl 70 - Pacific Fleet

Who Owns these Medical Assets?

- The MTF Commander?
- The Responsible Line Commander?
- The CINC?
- BUMED?
- The Surgeon General?
- The CNO?

It Depends!

- Deployed Medical Assets - the Geographic CINC
- Non-Deployed Medical Assets - the CNO



COMBATANT COMMANDS
95°W
100°E
USPACOM
USJFCOM
USPACOM
SPACECOM
TRANSCOM
STRATCOM
USJFCOM
USEUCOM
USCENTCOM
USSOUTHCOM
USPACOM
USJFCOM
USPACOM
92°W
17°E

VADM Nelson has two Jobs

- Chief, BUMED
- Surgeon General

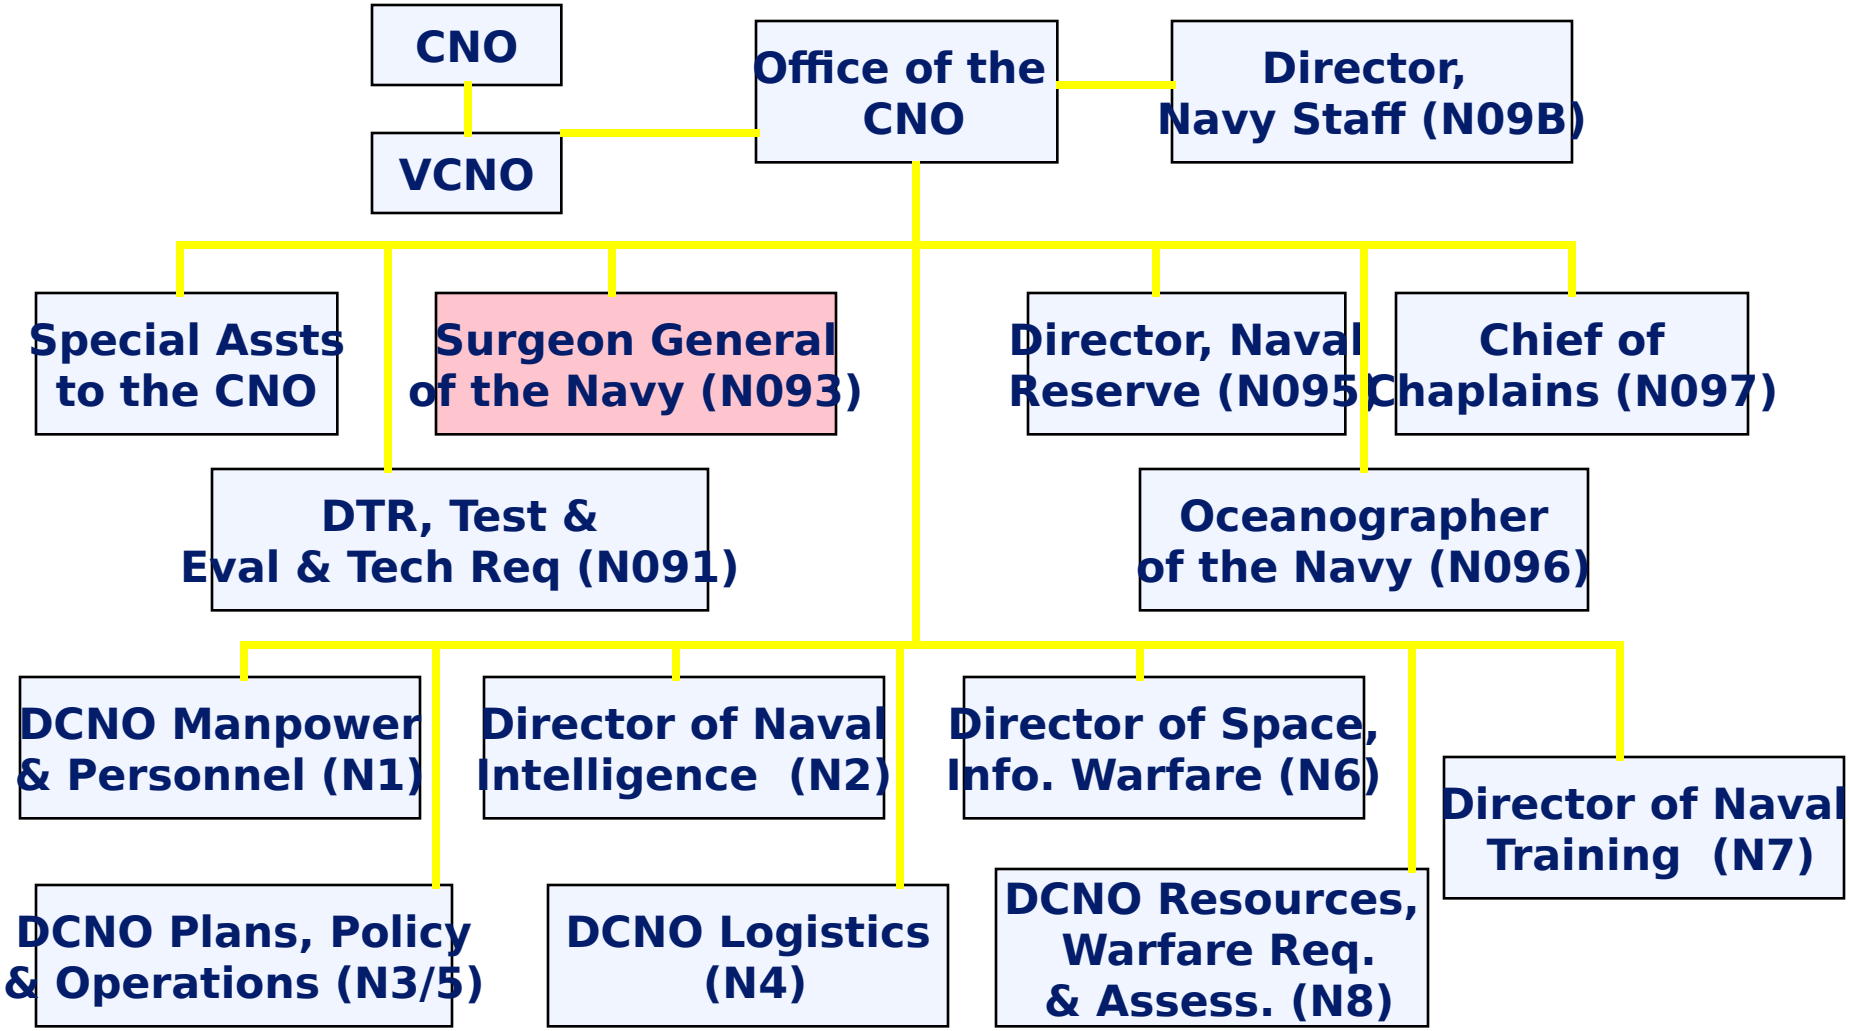
As Chief, BUMED . . .

- Responsible for Navy Medicine including the operation of MTFs
- To help him, he has a Staff - the friendly folks at BUMED

As Surgeon General . . .

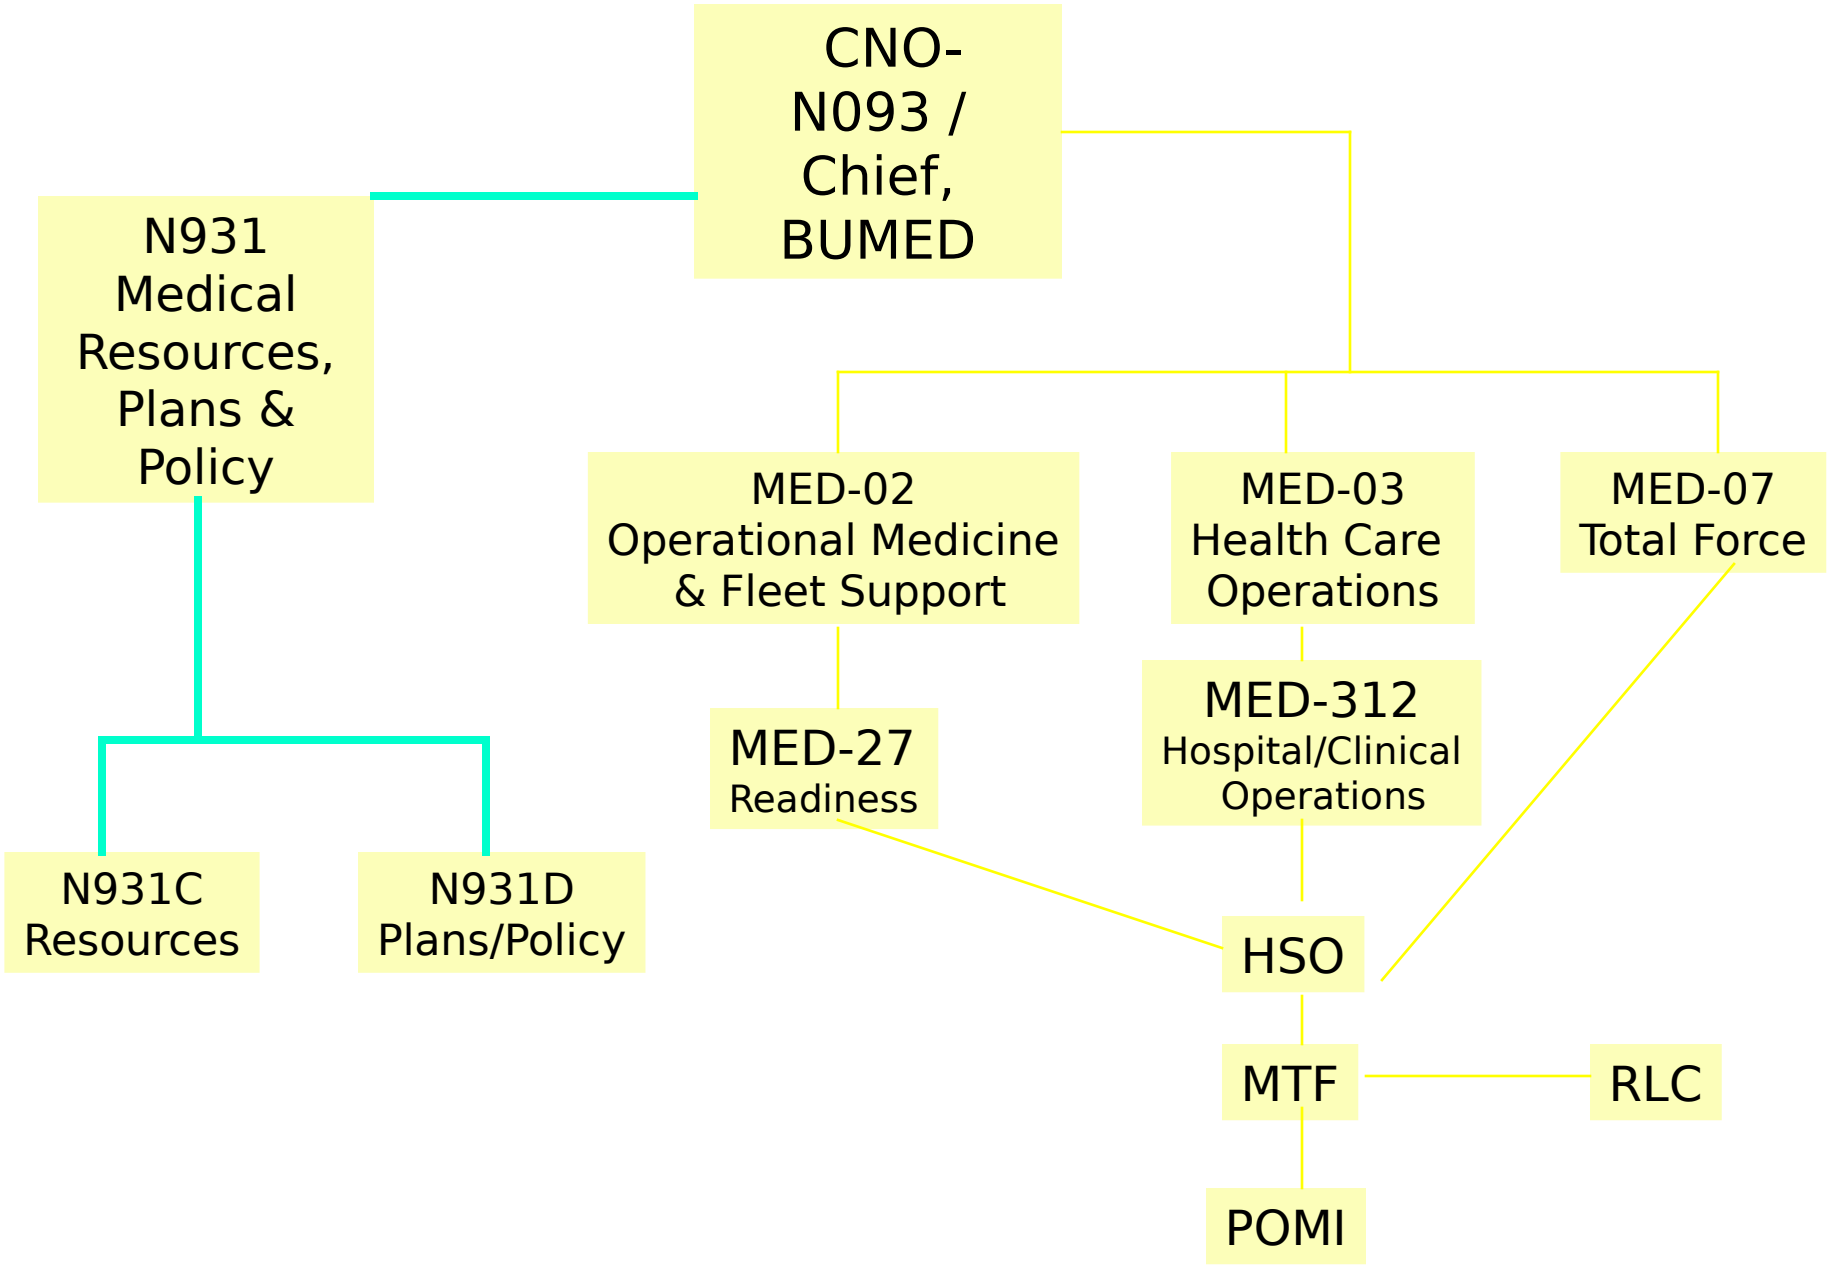
- He is a member of the CNO’s Staff
- He has a separate Staff to help him in this role -N931

Navy Organization



BUMED and N931 have Complimentary Roles

- N931 - Plans, Policy, Resources, ROC/POE, Validation of Medical Missions
- BUMED - Personnel and Platform Support, Execution of Medical Missions



CNO-
N093 /
Chief,
BUMED
N931
Medical Resources,
Plans &
Policy
MED-02
Operational Medicine
& Fleet Support
MED-03
Health Care
Operations
MED-07
Total Force
MED-27
Readiness
MED-312
Hospital/Clinical Operations
N931C
Resources
N931D
Plans/Policy
HSO
MTF
RLC
POMI

How are Medical Assets Tasked?